

Quality and Food Safety Policy

Document: Global-QA-SOP-100	Policy ID: COM-QUA-EN
Supersedes: 25-Jun-2024 version	Effective Date: 1-Feb-2026

It is the policy of the Company to provide products and services that meet applicable governmental requirements and fulfill agreed-to customer requirements. Our management systems, Company standards, and quality objectives provide for the safety and quality of our products. These are reviewed regularly and updated to address changing requirements, shifts in Company strategy, anticipated concerns from interested parties, and refined to promote continuous improvement.

James P. Zallie, President and Chief Executive Officer

January 19, 2026

Date

Rosalind Zils, Vice President Global Quality

January 19, 2026

Date

In support of the quality and food safety policy, Ingredion Incorporated:

- Ensures its products and services meet all applicable quality and food safety statutory and regulatory requirements, including mutually agreed to customer requirements
- Provides for the internal communication of quality and food safety requirements to our employees and external communication to our suppliers, customers, and other relevant interested parties in the food chain
- Has defined required food safety competencies for its employees, external providers and other persons doing work under its control that affects the performance and effectiveness of its management systems
- Communicates the quality and food safety policy to all levels of the company and makes it available to customers and other interested parties